TOWNFOLK ARE ASKED TO FLY FLAGS MAY 30

The Gettysburg Memorial Day committee today asked residents of the community to display the flag at their homes Saturday in observance of the day and at the same time reported it has received word from the Irish Brigade Memorial Association of the plans of that group for a ceremony on the Battlefield following the regular Memorial Day rites here.

Chester S. Shriver, chairman of the Gettysburg Memorial Day committee, said he had received word from Thomas McGuigan Jr., Philadelphia, president of the Irish Brigade Memorial Association, that his group will carry three flags in the Memorial Day parade here at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon. The Irish group plans to participate in the local exercises and then hold its own services.

The American flag, the flag of the Irish Republic and the regimental flag carried by the Irish Brigade during the Battle of Gettysburg and 22 other major battles in which it took part during the Civil War will head the Irish Brigade contingent in the second division of the Memorial Day parade.

PUPILS TOLD HOME WORK IS IMPORTANT

More home work and more parental interest were urged on pupils and parents attending the Sixth Grade commencement exercises Thursday night in the Fairfield Joint Elementary School.

Dr. John D. Anderson, former school teacher and Butler, Pa., superintendent, was principal speaker. He stressed four points that he feels are important in the educational process:

1. Children and parents should discuss educational problems. Back of every successful student are interested parents. "I approve the family after-supper discussion about school."
2. Make a choice of subject matter. Talk to the teachers and the guidance counselors. Extra-curricular subjects are both good and bad. Sometimes pupils undertake too much extra-curricular activity. They should decide what will contribute to their training.
3. Work, consistently and thoroughly. "There is no royal road to learning."
4. Home study. It is going into the discard—too much so. Students should study at home two hours a day while they attend high school, more in senior high.

Liked Bus Ride

Dr. Anderson outlined the history of the junior high school. He said that the idea was proposed in 1893. There was a period of exploration, later of adjustment leading to the present self-contained program with selective courses, he said.

He also recounted some of his experiences. Among them he told of the time he questioned a boy about what he liked best in school. "The ride home in the bus," the youngster replied.

George B. Inskip, supervising principal, spoke briefly and presented diplomas to the graduates who were introduced by Robert M. Reindollar, elementary principal.

America's Revered Dead To Be Honored Saturday

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

America's revered dead—military heroes of the nation's five major wars since the struggle for independence—will be honored Saturday in the 91st annual observance of Memorial Day.

The ceremonies, spreading from coast to coast, across the Pacific to Hawaii and northward to Alaska, will center chiefly at national cemeteries, battlefields and other shrines.

The long holiday weekend got under way today as millions, traveling by train, car and plane, started an exodus from crowded cities to resort areas.

SOLDIERS WERE "ILL-TREATED" AFTER BULL RUN

The second Battle of Bull Run was marked by the "worst treatment of the wounded" of any battle in the Civil War, Francis Wilshin, of the Manassas National Park, told the Gettysburg Civil War Round Table at its meeting Thursday evening in the GAR home, E. Middle St.

"Treatment of the wounded after the first Battle of Bull Run in 1861 was bad enough, but there it was a case of no preparations. There seems little excuse at Second Bull Run. But the medical corps set-up was ignored and a corps of ambulances and male nurses was secured from Washington. The troops went into the streets and impressed any wagon they could find, along with the driver, to serve as ambulances.

"Approximately 1,000 men were rounded up to serve as nurses. The volunteer nurses were given a basin, a sponge and a jug of whiskey for their supplies. The train in which they were to ride was delayed and by the time the nurses had entered the train most of the whiskey was already consumed.

"Transportation Genius"

"General Herman Haupt, who is well known in Gettysburg and who married a Gettysburg girl, was truly a transportation genius. But he also sometimes had a short temper. He became so disgusted with the alleged nurses that he stopped the train before it reached Manassas, and ordered off all who could walk. He then returned the train with the remainder to Washington. The male nurses found wagons loaded with wounded returning to Washington. They commandeered the wagons in a number of instances, threw off the wounded, and returned to Washington.

Confederates Helped
"Some of the wounded lay for six days on the battlefield before they were picked up. The Confederates, gathering up their own (Continued On Page 3)

Veteran Politicians Hold Reunion

Two close friends of long standing, perhaps the last survivors of the "Old Guard" Republican party which ruled in Pennsylvania for many years, met Thursday afternoon for a social visit.

They were former United States Senator Joseph R. Grundy, 97, of Bristol, Pa., and Atty. Leigh C. Taylor, 80, of Bendersville, who served as Grundy's secretary during his term in the Senate.

The veteran politicians happily recalled many incidents of days long gone by. They reminisced of the political campaigns that swept the Republicans back into office, and spoke reverently of their late friend, the former United States Senator Boies Penrose whom Taylor served as secretary for 23 years.

Despite their advanced years, both men retained sharp memories and remember incidents that occurred more than half a century ago.

Senator Grundy laughingly complains that his eyesight and his memory are beginning to fail him, but in the visit Thursday he had little difficulty recalling past happenings.

Mr. Grundy drove to the Bendersville home of Mr. Taylor, with his chauffeur and his secretary, Edwin Rummeler, who has been with him for 38 years, ever since he was 19 years old.

Big Four Confer On Plane; 'Useful Exchange Of Views'

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
GENEVA (AP)—The Big Four foreign ministers announced today after a trans-Atlantic sea conference that they had a useful exchange of views on their overnight flight from Washington.

They agreed to start the final round of their Geneva talks on German problems, the Berlin crisis and the prospects for a summit conference at the villa of British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd at 5 p.m. (11 a.m. EST).

The U.S. Air Force plane carrying Secretary of State Christian A. Herter, Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko, Foreign Secretary Lloyd and France's Maurice Couve de Murville landed at Cotinair Airport here at 12:54 p.m.

In Jovial Mood

The four ministers were in a jovial mood, Herter was first off the plane, Gromyko following. Assistant Secretary of State Andrew H. Berding, who had ridden in an accompanying aircraft, issued a statement on behalf of the four:

WARNS ABOUT MATERIALISM IN SERMON TO SEMINARIANS

The dangers from materialism in the church as well as in other facets of life were emphasized for members of the graduating class at the 133rd graduation service Thursday evening at the Gettysburg Lutheran Theological Seminary by the Rev. Dr. Edward K. Rogers, secretary for stewardship and benevolence in the Pittsburgh Synod of the United Lutheran Church.

Dr. Rogers' theme was "Not by Bread Alone."

Baccalaureate degrees were given to 37 young ministers at the service in the Church of the Abiding Presence on the seminary campus. There were post graduate degrees for three others. All were conferred by Dr. Harry F. Baughman, seminary president.

Two Ex-Presidents March

In the academic procession that preceded the service, two former seminary presidents joined the capped and gownned seniors, the seminary choir, faculty members and guests. They were Dr. John Aberly, 91, and Dr. Abdel Ross Wentz, 75, Dr. Baughman's immediate predecessors. The church was filled for the service over which Prof. Francis Reinberger, a member of the faculty, presided.

Candidates for the degrees were presented by Dr. Ralph D. Heim as secretary of the faculty. Hoods were placed and diplomas were handed to Dr. Baughman by Dr. Reginald W. Deitz, professor of church history at the seminary. There were two anthems by the seminary chorus under the direction of Robert Smith Clippinger, who also was organist for the service.

Gets Master's Degrees

The degree of Master of Sacred Theology was conferred upon Paul Elias Stambach and Don Rudolph Studer and the Master of Arts degree upon George Edward Weaver.

Taking his text and theme from part of a passage from the fourth chapter of Matthew that had been read earlier in the service, Dr. Rogers centered his talk about these words: "Man shall not live by bread alone but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God."

Defining the word "bread" in his text as describing "the material things we seek and use in our daily lives," Dr. Rogers asked: "Aren't we dedicated to more than ever to changing stones into bread?" He pointed to a higher goal than "the intentions and creations of our age."

Great Concern For Security

He noted that Jesus "did not rule out the material in life" but pointed to the word of God as essential. He described signs of materialism in politics, industry, education, the home and the church and declared the great concern today is "for security, and not spiritual security, either."

"It seems we are most concerned about living here with a full stomach, a cover for our back and a place to sleep. Our homes are infected with the virus of materialism. We have never lived so comfortably or had so many necessities and luxuries and just plain gadgets. Christian homes should realize that they are not just an inventory of comforts for this is not the abundant life of which Jesus spoke and these comforts do not point our souls to heaven."

GOVERNOR'S SWITCH MAY COMPLICATE TAX PICTURE

By BILL GIBSON

HARRISBURG (AP)—Gov. Lawrence's unexpected support of legislation to restore the 50-cent exemption from the state sales tax for restaurant meals may further complicate an already confused tax program.

Chairman Edward J. Kessler (R-Lancaster) of the Senate Finance Committee said today that the governor has backtracked on his own tax proposals and cannot expect the legislature to approve all of the remainder of his tax program.

"He can't say for us to go down the line on taxes," Kessler declared.

Won't Support It

The Lancaster County lawmaker said passage of the food exemption also might change the Senate vote on the administration-backed bill to extend the sales tax to retail sales of liquor and beer.

"Some (senators) have said that if you tax food you ought to tax beer," he said. However, he said that if no new tax were put on food those senators might not support a new tax on liquor and beer.

"I don't think I'll vote for that (the exemption)," Kessler said. "It just means we would have to stick our necks out on some other tax" to raise the 14 million dollars which the bill lowering the exemption to 10 cents is expected to bring in.

Final Okay Monday

Kessler said he is definitely opposed to the proposed 25 per cent tax on cigars, the personal property tax and the soft drink tax as it is now written.

The Senate met in an unusual fourth-day session Thursday and gave its final approval to reenactment of taxes which will expire Sunday night and 12 1/2 million dollar in stopgap appropriations for operations in the new biennium, beginning Monday.

The House will be unable to give final approval to the levies—1 per cent on realty transfers and the temporary two cents of the five-cent-a-gallon gasoline tax—until Monday. Atty. Gen. Anne X. Alpern has said, however, that if Lawrence signs the measures Monday, there will be no break in the taxes.

Suspended The Rules

The temporary two cents on gasoline would bring in about 115 million dollars during the biennium and the transfer tax is estimated at about 38 millions.

The Senate suspended the rules to call up and approve the conference committee report on the transfer levy which did not appear on the regular Senate calendar.

The committee met earlier this week and compromised differences in versions of the measure passed by the House and Senate.

The stopgap appropriations would finance payments of public assistance and salaries for state employees from the beginning of the 1959-61 budget is approved.

RAILROADERS
MAKE DEMAND

WASHINGTON (AP)—Public demands on the nation's railroads have been made by 11 unions representing 800,000 workers. They want two more than the present seven paid holidays a year and an extra week's vacation annually.

Wage and other demands will be made in the next few months. George Leighty, president of the Order of Railroad Telegraphers and chief spokesman for the union group, said Thursday.

Present agreements run to Nov. 1. The union group called for bargaining conferences to start soon. It suggested nationwide negotiations.

Leighty estimated the vacation holiday demands would cost about 1 1/2 percent of the payroll.

Operating unions—whose members man the running trains—have already called for pay boosts of 12 to 14 percent. The railroads have countered by suggesting a 15-cent hourly pay cut.

HOLIDAY FOR P. O.

ward salvation."

In his reference to materialism in churches, he observed that sometimes "we never get around to the program for which our monumental churches were erected" and added: "Material accomplishments in the church can never be a substitute for training and education in the word of God. There is always the danger that the church will trot along with the times like a sheep instead of serving as a shepherd for its times."

After presenting degrees to the graduates, Dr. Baughman spoke briefly and made a reference to the Pilgrim's Progress and a scene there as the pilgrims drew near the Celestial City. He urged the seniors to "return often to the mount where the vision of the Celestial City may be renewed" and then closed by repeating these words of Christ from John 15: "Ye have not chosen me but I have chosen you and ordained you that you should go and bring forth fruit."

The graduates of the seminary will assume duties over a wide area. Planning to travel the farthest to begin his duties is Allan Glasgow Thompson, who spent 11 years with the Voice of America before beginning his ministerial studies. SOLDIERS WERE wounded, did as much as they could to help the Union wounded who were receiving "little help from their own forces," the speaker said.

Wilshin described the situation in August 1862 which led to the second battle of Bull Run. "General Pope was about to join forces with General McClellan, returning from the Peninsula campaign. Lee, wishing to battle Pope before the two Union Armies united and thus would greatly outnumber him, split his own forces and sent Jackson to Manassas Junction with the hope that destruction of the stores there would lead Pope into a fight."

"Jackson's Confederates marched for two days and captured the Union supplies. Pope, going to Manassas, believed that only Jackson was there, and determined to crush him. In the meantime Lee swiftly moved the other half of his army into position and Pope, not knowing that Longstreet's men and others were moving against him, found his attack against Jackson thrown back by the counter-attack from the other Confederate forces, and the Union fought its way into another retreat."

Will Tour Manassas

Wilshin said that the First Battle of Bull Run (Manassas), "while technically a Union defeat and a Confederate victory, actually was the reverse. For it shocked the North into realization of the war it would have to fight, and thus McClellan was able to build an army, while at the same time it made the Confederates overconfident, leading to their downfall."

Vice President William Shoemaker presided at the meeting at which plans were made for an all-day bus tour to Manassas June 25.

Outlining efforts to obtain congressional appropriations for the purchase of additional land at Manassas, Wilshin said that the present federal holdings are "so separated that we cannot even build a road through the southern part of the field. We do not own the principal land on which the battle was fought."

Wilshin told of the destruction of Fort Beauregard. The Confederate "fort" had stood for 92 years until last spring when the owner of the property decided to extend his shopping center and sent in bulldozers to level the area.

PEACE SETTLES
ON FIGHT CAMP

NEW YORK (AP) — Peace, at last, settled on the troubled Floyd Patterson - Ingemar Johansson heavyweight title fight promotion. Manager Gus D'Amato says his champion positively will risk his crown against Johansson, the undefeated challenger from Sweden, at Yankee Stadium, June 25.

His statement came after promoter Bill Rosenzohn had blasted him in the newspapers and on radio and television.

Rosenzohn had charged that D'Amato told him he was thinking of moving the fight out of New York. The manager was angry at the New York Athletic Commission's action in rejecting luncheonette owner Harry Davidow's application to become the "10 percent" manager of Johansson.

ASK CHANGE IN FLOOD CONTROL

HARRISBURG (AP)—President Eisenhower has been asked by Pennsylvania's Soil Conservation Commission to scrap a government policy limiting the number of new flood control projects started yearly in any one area.

In a letter to Eisenhower made public Thursday, the commission wrote:

"To us this policy discriminates against the smaller watersheds. For example, if there is a limit of two starts in Pennsylvania this year, we naturally are inclined to approve and give priority to two of the largest watersheds where a greater amount of work can be accomplished."

Last Civil War Vet Is 98 Sunday: George W. Today's Talk

YOUR OTHER SELVES
We see ourselves in our friends, as a second creation. That is why we should never give up a friend who has proved himself worthy. A genuine friend is too rare to be dismissed. The older we get the tighter we should cling to our friends.

I frequently remain silent, when among friends, for fear I may see too much of myself in them. I want to take care of my own faults and failures! I want to keep what friends I have and enjoy them, but this cannot be done if we try to make them all over in our way.

Let us not blame anyone. Let us learn to keep silence as a virtue. The Golden Rule will never go out of fashion. The happiness of the world clings to it, even when it looks as though it wanted to "throw in the sponge."

God created all sorts of human beings so that there might be variety among all. Why are there bitter arguments and unkindnesses showing up all the time? Can't we be friends and seek to improve even this world with all its faults and failures? Nature can help us out. In the animal world there is very little fighting going on. The birds sing their songs because they are happy. It is a joy to have them wake me up each day to listen to their daily chorus, even though they may be only practicing.

We are a part of all life and we shall live more happily and healthily if we contribute our share to the world's welfare.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Where Is God?" Protected, 1959, by The George Matthews Adams Service

Just Folks

THE CONTENTED MAN
I don't know any millionaire
Who has a better time than I;
He may have better clothes to wear,
He may drink wine when he is dry;
He may have dollars to my dimes
When on hamburger I must dine,
And he may think his babies sweet,
But they're no sweeter than mine.

In silks perhaps his wife is dressed,
She smiles to see him come, maybe;
But just the same my wife is best—
At least she so appears to me.
He may have dollars to my dimes,
I'll grant him that, but nothing more;
He can't have any better times
Than I do when the day is o'er.
I'll bet, with all his millions, he Gets no more out of life than I
Who take my babies on my knee
And sing a little lullaby.
And if he has no little tots
To romp with when the day is done,
With all his cash and city lots,
He doesn't get much real fun.

CASE AGAINST WESTINGHOUSE WILL BE AIRED

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Charges of unfair labor practices against Westinghouse Electric Corp. will be aired at a National Labor Relations Board hearing June 8.

The NLRB, acting on a complaint filed by the International Union of Electrical Workers, set the hearing date Thursday.

The union lodged the complaint after the collapse of bargaining talks with the company under a contract reopening clause. Involved in the talks were some 35,000 Westinghouse employees in 26 IUE locals.

Since Dec. 5, the union charged, Westinghouse has refused to negotiate employment security issues. It also charged that since Sept. 9 the company has declined to furnish data to substantiate a claim fringe benefits cost an average of 44 cents an hour for each employee.

Robert D. Blasier, Westinghouse vice president of industrial relations, denied the charges. He said: "If there was any lack of good faith or refusal to bargain, it was not on the part of Westinghouse."

City trucks and fire fighting equipment cleaned up the roadway but could do little for the Garlinghouse lawn.

The truck driver said he lost control of his vehicle on a curve.

Nikita Not In Rush For Big 4 Meeting

LONDON (AP)—Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev says he's in no hurry for a Big Four summit meeting.

"If there will be no meeting of the heads of government in the near future, we shall wait until the conditions are ripe," he said Thursday in an address in the Albanian town of Korca.

Western diplomats believe Khrushchev is anxious for a summit meeting, regardless of the line he adopts publicly for propaganda purposes.

SAYS 4 PCT. TAX IS GOAL OF PA. GOP

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A 4 per cent sales tax is the goal of Republicans in the General Assembly, in the opinion of Gov. David L. Lawrence.

The governor told a newsman Thursday he thought the Republicans may try to jam such a tax through the Legislature to "free themselves of responsibility for not providing the other tax money he had requested."

The state sales tax recently was increased to 3½ per cent as part of an over-all tax program sought by the governor.

One-Third Of Way
Lawrence told the annual meeting of the Citizens' Council on City Planning that so far "the Legislature has come about one-third of the way toward meeting our fiscal necessities."

"It is obvious that we are approaching a deadline, a point at which the Tax Study Commission recommendations must be written into law, or those who reject them must come forward with suggestions of their own."

Lawrence said that quick adoption of the remainder of his tax program is necessary for a strong state economy.

REDS MISS ON SCORING; PHILS WIN SQUEAKER

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP)—Finally the Philadelphia Phillies met a team that outdid them in the department of blowing scoring opportunities.

The Phillies were at their best in this department Thursday night, but the Cincinnati Reds were a bit better; so the Phillies won 4-3.

It was close. The Reds rallied in the ninth and brought in their third run on a single by Vada Pinson and a double by Jerry Lynch. But Ray Sempach relieved starter and winner Jim Owens (3-3) and left Lynch stranded by fanning Frank Robinson and getting Gus Bell to fly out.

Each team left 11 men on base. The Phillies missed good scoring chances in the third and fourth innings. In the fourth Willie Jones hit a double and scored on a single, only to be tagged out when the umpire ruled he didn't touch the plate.

The Reds had Owens in trouble in almost every inning, outbidding the Phillies 13-10, but the right-hander managed to stop them. Robinson's homer in the sixth and Bell's in the eighth were the only Cincinnati runs until the ninth.

Won In Ninth
The Phillies scored their first run in the second on Wally Post's walk, Harry Anderson's single and the first of Jones' two doubles. At that point Orlando Pena replaced starter and loser Joe Nuxhall (2-3) who hadn't pitched since May 14 because of an ailing shoulder. Three more relievers followed Pena.

In the fifth Harry Anderson tripped, bringing home Ed Bouchee who had singled and Post who had walked again.

The final Philadelphia run came in the ninth on Bouchee's walk and Post's double.

Grid Article By Jones Published

A football article, "Try the 4-4-2 Defense," written by Ben Jones, who resigned several months ago as head football coach at Gettysburg High School to accept a similar position at Berwick, appears in the May issue of the Athletic Journal.

In the article Jones outlines the reasons he uses this type of defense, pointing out the ease it offers in shifting to other styles of defense.

Six diagrams accompany the article as well as a large photo of the 1958 Warrior football squad which is in the 4-4-2 formation.

The article is the second by Jones in the past year to be accepted by the magazine which is published monthly. Its contributors include most of the nationally known college and scholastic coaches and officials.

Chris Richardson, fireball pitcher for the Moose, became the first Little League hurler this season to toss a no-hit, no-run contest, as he blanked the Rotary 6-0 Thursday evening on the recreation field.

Richardson allowed six walks and there was only one Moose miscue which permitted Rotary runners to get on base. The young hurler gave his best all-around performance since he was purchased by the Moose a year ago.

Richardson not only turned in a top pitching performance but he also led his team at the plate with two-for-four including a triple and double. The triple started the scoring in the first frame. Richardson blaster hit to deep left and tallied on a fielding error.

The Moose tallied their remaining five runs in the top of the third. Richardson doubled, Charles Wolfe and Ron Plank singled while free passes to Richie Fair, Larry Shindeldecker and Ron Fox and a number of Rotary errors accounted for the scores.

The Rotary managed to get runners on base in every inning except the fourth, but were unable to capitalize.

Richardson picks up his first win of the season on a clean slate while Bill James, Rotary hurler, is charged with the loss.

OLD-FASHIONED START WILL BE USED IN RACE

By DALE BURGESS

Associated Press Sports Writer

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Officials of the Indianapolis Motor Speedway and U.S. Auto Club today called together the 33 drivers in Saturday's 500-mile auto race to explain the "old-fashioned" start.

The traditional formation will be restored after two hectic and costly prologues to the world's richest auto contest.

Under the old system, the 33 cars were lined up at the starting line with dead engines. Then the engines were started and the racers slowly followed the pace car until they were in proper positions.

If the alignment was good, the race was on when they hit the starting line.

Saturday there will be an extra lap—two in all.

A car plunged into the pits in the 1956 race, badly injuring a crewman. The speedway then moved the pits away from the track edge and into the infield, separated from the track by a concrete wall and an access strip.

Speedway cars do not have self-starters and it was thought the problem of moving portable starters off the track would make the old start impractical. For two years, the cars have stayed in the pits, with drivers expected to drive onto the track and take positions behind the moving pace car.

Two years ago, two cars tangled in the parade lap and were out of the race. Last year, the first three cars got away ahead of the pace car. After an extra parade lap, they finally got in line—and then 15 cars banged together on the first official lap, killing driver Pat O'Connor.

BOB GOALBY'S PUTTER IS HOT

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Bob Goalby says his putter has been working better for him in recent weeks and his performances bear out the statement.

The Belleville, Ill., golfer who plays out of Crystal Rivers, Fla., used only 24 putts Thursday in shooting a 31-33-64 for a two-stroke first round lead in the third annual Kentucky Derby Open.

Goalby's seven-under-par round in sunny weather broke the Derby Open record of 65 set in 1957 by Julius Boros.

Last week the 28-year-old Goalby had a 63 in the Memphis Open, but it was washed out by rain. If the round had counted, he would have won the tournament by three strokes.

Springers Win On No-Hit Pitching

The York Springs Little League team handed South Dickinson its first loss in the Adams-Cumberland League Thursday evening at York Springs 9-0 as Don Shellheimer pitched a no-hit, no-run game.

Shellheimer fanned six and walked two and aided his own cause by socking a home run with two aboard in the third inning when York Springs scored seven runs. Hockley and Davis divided the pitching for South Dickinson.

York Springs will play its next league game at Idaville Tuesday evening.

Score by innings: S. Dickinson 000 000—0 York Springs 017 10x—9

Mallett who belted two home runs, Antinelli allowed Albany only seven hits and didn't give up a run until the seventh when Bud Spiers doubled home a run.

York swept a three game series from Binghamton with a 4-1 victory over the Triplets and Springfield edged Lancaster 2-1, in 10 innings.

75 CLUBWOMEN ON TOUR HERE ON WEDNESDAY

Seventy-five members of the Woman's Community Club of Littlestown and vicinity enjoyed a tour in Gettysburg on Wednesday evening, followed with a visit to the Geigley Gardens, near Fairfield. Refreshments were provided by the club for members at Howard Johnson's restaurant, Gettysburg.

A business meeting was held at the restaurant, in charge of Mrs. Robert J. Eckenrode, president. A moment of silent prayer was observed in respect of Mrs. John V. Kindig, recently deceased member. Following routine reports by Mrs. Chester S. Byers, secretary, and Mrs. Sterling J. Wisotzky, treasurer; there were reports on the Fashion Show by Mrs. Carroll E. IT PAYS TO

"Some Like It Hot" To Play At Majestic

"Some Like It Hot," starring Marilyn Monroe, Tony Curtis and Jack Lemmon, produced and directed by Billy Wilder for the Mirisch Company, is a rowdy, roisterous comedy of the roaring twenties, co-starring George Raft, Pat O'Brien and Joe E. Brown, with Nehemiah Persoff, Joan Shawlee, Billy Gray, George E. Stone, Dave Barry and Mike Mazurki. It opens Wednesday at the Majestic Theater for a four-day run.

Wilder, who produced and directed, also collaborated on the screenplay with I. A. L. Diamond. They worked from a story suggested by R. Thoren and M. Logan.

The fast-paced farce about gals, guys and gangsters operating in crime-ridden Chicago and a plucky, booming (pre-depression) Miami Beach, has a tune-filled musical background of hit songs of the era sung by Marilyn Monroe. Miss Monroe, who warbles "I'm Through With Love," "Runnin' Wild" and "I Want To Be Loved By You," portrays a vocalist, complete with ukulele, with an all-girl band booked for a Miami Beach engagement. Into her life and into the band come Tony Curtis and Jack Lemmon, a pair of manly musicians masquerading as girls to escape gangland machine guns. They made the mistake of witnessing a Valentine's Day-type massacre directed by George Raft. Their convincing disguise leads to some very interesting and hilarious situations with the other girls and even involves Lemmon in a romantic situation with a middle-aged playboy portrayed by Joe E. Brown, who thinks Jack's a lovely lady.

Five Star Restaurant On Route 15 Is Expanding; Home Style Cooking There

Four years old—growing in popularity and expanding in size. That's the story of the Five Star Restaurant, four miles south of Gettysburg along the Emmitsburg Rd.

The present restaurant was opened for business July 15, 1955, and in July of this year it will open an additional dining room in the Early American tradition that will increase its present dining room capacity to close to 100.

Ground was broken May 20 for the new addition that will measure 40 by 40 and the project carries with it a kitchen annex that will triple the size of the present kitchen.

A Day To Remember

Fred A. and Elsie Nimitz came here from New Albany, Pa., where he had worked for Du Pont. They bought three acres of land along the east side of the Emmitsburg Rd. from Sidney Simmons, a part of the old Weikert farm.

Their knotty-pine paneled restaurant opened for business in mid-July of that year on the day their third child was born. Since then they have catered to a steady tourist business with a growing local clientele, especially on Saturdays and Sundays and for evening meals.

The restaurant is open daily from 6 a.m.—to provide tourists with an early start from their nearby motels—until 10 p.m.

Attractive furnishings, home-style cooking with a varied menu giving patrons a wide selection of tasty dishes and a daily "special" platter have proved popular. Mary Katherine Wasko is in charge of the kitchen while Mr. Nimitz takes over often on the "night shift."

Air-Conditioned Dining Areas
There is a soda fountain and sandwiches are on sale, too. The restaurant is ready to serve its customers anything from a quick snack to a full course dinner.

When the new dining room is ready, it will be furnished in Early American with a lot of colonial "atmosphere." The new dining quarters will offer separate dining space for clubs or large parties that require a private dining room. Its exposed beams and Early American chairs will be in keeping with the general decoration plans Mr. and Mrs. Nimitz have for their new annex.

The new dining room will be reached through a new central entrance that will open into each dining area. The entire interior will be centrally heated and fully air-conditioned.

Those "Five Stars"
At the entrance will be the cashier and a 12x18 souvenir room expanding the souvenir business already conducted in connection with the restaurant.

The Gettysburg Construction Company is building the new section.

And about that name—the Five Star Restaurant—it indicates that the establishment not only is a top ranking restaurant but that there are five "stars" in the Nimitz family—Fred and Elsie and their three children, Sharon, aged 12; William, aged 10, and Carl who was born July 15, 1955, the day Fred and Elsie opened their new Route 15 restaurant.

Modern Maid Ranges On Display By M. A. Hartley

Modern Maid electric and gas built-in ranges and free-standing gas ranges have just been placed on display in the show rooms of M. A. Hartley & Company on Carlisle St.

M. A. Hartley Company recently was appointed as distributor for Modern Maid ranges in Adams County and vicinity, according to an announcement by Manager Richard Hartley.

In 5 Popular Colors

These Modern Maid ranges include new double oven models with a Roastender to cut oven off when the meat reaches the desired temperature. Other features are a triple rotisserie spit with a chrome oven door lining and broiler pan rack. There are many other models also with additional optional features.

Special thin design range tops are available with thermal eye units and "plug-in" elements which lift out for easy cleaning.

Available in five popular decorator colors, the thin range tops that allow every bit of possible space for drawers or oven have glass lined burner boxes for the easiest possible cleaning.

The oven rotisserie with electric motor and removable spit brings taste of outdoor cooking into the kitchen, say those who have tried it.

The giant "queen-sized" oven, 18 inches wide, is clock controlled on all models and has the rod type broil and bake units.

Separate Economy Unit
The double oven model has a separate economy unit so that the housewife may broil in both, bake in both or broil and bake at the same time.

The "thermal eye" feature makes every pot and pan completely automatic. Plug-in units are furnished on all "thermal eye" range tops.

M. A. Hartley & Company also is showing the porcelain enamel range hoods for use in connection with the new ranges, so that if the buyer wishes, he can match the copertone range enameled hood. "Super thin" it takes little or no cabinet space. Its plastic trim, an exclusive feature, gives extra protection. The hood makes use of a powerful, quiet and efficient 10-inch impeller for delivering air. The motor has two speeds and carries a

WAY BACK FOR M'SORLEY IS CLEARED NOW

HARRISBURG (AP)—The way has been cleared for G. Franklin McSorley's reinstatement as a Pennsylvania Turnpike commissioner if he wants the job.

The last legal obstacle to the Pittsburgh Democrat's possible return was removed Thursday when the Justice Department announced it would not appeal a State Superior Court decision which reversed McSorley's conviction in Dauphin County Court on charges of misconduct in office.

Atty. Gen. Anne X. Alpern said the decision was made because it was felt that an appeal would gain nothing.

McSorley was suspended from the toll road agency in 1957 by former Gov. Leader.

Gov. Lawrence has said he was agreeable to McSorley's returning five-year guarantee. The washable filter is easily removed from any of the models which come in three widths, 30, 36 and 42 inches.

to the commission but that the decision was up to McSorley.

McSorley has been silent since reversal of his conviction. Previously, he had said that he wanted only to have his name cleared and that he wasn't interested in continuing as Turnpike chairman.

Commissioner Joseph J. Lawler has been serving as acting chairman of the agency.

The conflict of interest stemmed from a government charge that Rein's wife, Florence, contributed $5,000 to the Burke firm, and also served for a time as its treasurer.

Rein was released on bail pending a pre-sentence investigation. He faces a maximum penalty of two years imprisonment and $2,000 fine.

His attorney, Harold Tull of Harrisburg said he was undecided on whether to appeal the conviction to the U.S. District Court of Appeals at Philadelphia.

HARRISBURG (AP) — Gov. Lawrence has reappointed Dr. S. K. Stevens for a four-year term as executive director of the State Historical and Museum Commission.

CONVICT MAN OF RARE CHARGE

HARRISBURG (AP) — Alfred Rein, of Levittown, former supervisor of purchasing agents at the Mechanicsburg Naval Supply Depot, was convicted Thursday on a charge of conflict of interest in U.S. District Court.

The jury, however, found Rein and John S. Burke, of Huntingdon Valley, near Philadelphia, innocent of a separate charge of conspiracy to defraud the Navy in connection with contracts obtained from the depot in 1954 and 1955. Burke is former president of the defunct Burke Manufacturing Co.

REV. DR. REASER WRITES CHURCH PAGE ARTICLE

By REV. DR. PAUL L. REASER

PRESIDENT

ADAMS COUNTY MINISTERIUM

PASTOR

ST. JAMES

LUTHERAN CHURCH

The editor of The Gettysburg Times has invited the clergymen of Adams County to prepare articles for publication every Friday on the church page of The Times. These articles will be devotional, inspirational, instructive in nature. Sometimes the article will be on the text of the international Sunday School lesson series. Each minister is free to choose his own subject. We appreciate sincerely this means of serious communication with the thousands of regular readers of The Gettysburg Times.

How frequently the New Testament reflects a keen desire to communicate the message and the Person of Jesus Christ to other people! Angels announced the "good tidings" of the birth of Jesus to the shepherds. Jesus began His work by first announcing the nature of His ministry to the people in Nazareth, His home town. (Luke 4:14-21)

"Announce His Coming"

At one time He commissioned seventy to go before Him into the towns and villages of Galilee to announce His coming and the good news He was to bring.

On one occasion when He healed a Gadarene demoniac, the man wanted to join the little band of disciples. But Jesus told him, "Go home to your friends and tell them what great things the Lord hath done for you, and hath had compassion on you." The record is that "he departed and began to publish" the amazing news of what had been done for him. (Mark 5:1-20)

At the close of His earthly ministry the Lord gave final instructions to the apostles, "You shall be my witnesses in Jerusalem, and in Judea and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth." (Acts 1:8) There should be no suppression of the good news anywhere!

"Mass Communication"

This mid-twentieth century is a time of mass communication such as the world has never known. The miracles of the printed page, the radio and television have made it possible to reach a large portion of the world's population within a 24-hour period. A devastating flood in a southwestern state is heard all over America while it is happening. A rebellion in South America is reported to the world within a few hours. The serious sickness of a great statesman alerts all the governments of the world and they are informed of his death within minutes. The cessation of war and bloodshed in any part of the world causes bells to ring with the joyous news in other nations.

Great Facility

This whole intercommunication system throughout the earth is helping the world to become a neighborhood. How grateful we should be for such facilities at our fingertips.

And yet, the essential communication is the person-to-person contact in everyday life. What I say to my neighbor; what I report to my wife, or husband, or child; the confidence I convey, the hope expressed, and the "truth spoken in love,"—this day-by-day witness is something for which I am responsible. And though I made some mistakes yesterday in the thoughts and words relayed to others, God gives me a new chance with every new day to be a witness of that which brings gladness and courage and strength to others. You, too, may have a part in the communication of good news to your fellowmen.

"A Very Present Help"

WGET (1450 Kc) Sunday 8:15 A.M.

You can't help loving this little pup. Maybe it's because he seems so out of proportion. If he somehow were able to flap those ears he might fly away.

Perhaps there is a little fellow in your home who is "all ears" in another sense . . . a youngster who takes in everything that's said, including some things he isn't meant to hear.

Most children are eager to listen . . . hungry to learn. That is why the early years are so important in the molding of a child's character. The things he hears, whether right or wrong, make a deep impression on his mind. They are soon reflected in his actions and words.

Wise parents take advantage of the Church's program of religious education in implanting those early impressions. They know there is no surer builder of character than religious faith.

NOW . . . while your child is eager to hear and to learn, bring him to church . . . and support the Church in its great undertaking.

SEE SIGNS OF SUMMER IN TV PROGRAMS

By CHARLES MERCER
NEW YORK (AP) — Network Television reveals its annual signs of approaching summer in programs for the coming week.

Taking a look ahead to the fall for a moment, NBC Board Chairman Robert Sarnoff offers some good news from that network:

"A 60 per cent new night-time schedule; more than 150 prime-time special programs; at least seven major informational programs at peak viewing hours; a key Sunday night-time period devoted primarily to original, live, color, New York-originated dramatic shows. . . .

Informational Shows
"The Sunday Showcase primarily original plays, especially created for television by the medium's most gifted playwrights. . . .

"Special informational shows are slated for both the Sunday and Friday evening period. The tremendous Ford undertaking of 39 top-drawers and divers-interest specials on Tuesday. Add two score or more of other specials sprinkled through the night-time schedule."

Meanwhile, however, May is ending and June beginning, and in the coming week:

"The Last Word" is as delightful as ever, on Sunday now over CBS. Mary McCarthy and Aldous Huxley are this week's guests.

One of the most popular entertainment forms this season has turned out to be country music, visible and audible in "Midwestern Hayride" Sunday at NBC.

A new studio audience participation game based on the crossword puzzle and called "Across the Board" bows on ABC Monday.

On Monday NBC presents "Summer on Ice," a special ice skating extravaganza starring Rosemary Clooney, Tab Hunter, Tony Randall and the entire cast of "Ice Capades of 1959."

Gobel Be Guest
Guests on the Garry Moore Show over CBS Tuesday are George Gobel, Shirley Jones, Jack Cassidy and Count Basie and his orchestra.

"Music for a Summer Night," a summertime music and dance series, makes its debut on ABC Wednesday. The opening show will feature ballet dancers Melissa Hayden and Andre Eglevsky, Jean Leon Destine and Haitian dance group, singer Betty Ann Grove, Glenn Osser's orchestra.

On CBS comes "Holiday, U.S.A.," a special program of American music starring Burl Ives, Eddie Hodges, Gisele MacKenzie, Red Nichols and the U.S. Naval Academy Cadet Glee Club from Annapolis.

NBC On Marriage
Thursday NBC News presents "I Take Thee" a special hour program examining some of the current problems of love and marriage in American Society. CBS "Playhouse 90" offer "The Killers of Mussolini."

Friday over CBS "Strike Playhouse" features Hal March and Pat Crowley as the co-stars of "The Rumor."

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

SAYS WAY TO STAY YOUNG IS TO LIVE ON GAY WHITE WAY

By DOROTHY ROE
AP Women's Editor

One way to stay young is to spend your life spang in the heart of Broadway, take your outings along the neon-lighted way and dodge traffic.

This, at least, is the prescription of Mrs. Helena Wild, who has spent all of her 72 years in the immediate vicinity of the Great White Way.

Mrs. Wild is red-haired, vivacious, somewhat buxom and a dead ringer for Ethel Merman with some years added. A former singer in opera, musicals and vaudeville, she now works as cashier and housekeeper in Broadway hotel where she has lived for 18 years, since the death of her third husband. Says she:

Likes Hustle, Bustle
"My friends are trying to get me to retire and go to Florida, but what would I do there? No electric signs, no honking taxis, no orange juice stands and blocks of movies, no celebrities to see. I'd die of boredom."

A front porch and a rocking chair aren't Mrs. Wild's idea of Utopia. She prefers the bustle of the cashier's desk in the restaurant which is the busiest part of her hotel home. She likes to josh the waiters and bartenders and greet famous patrons by name — such names as Gloria Swanson, Bette Davis, Sam Levenson and others who are happiest on Broadway.

Was Born There
Mrs. Wild was born in Manhattan and trained from childhood to become an opera singer. She recalls:

"I was supposed to debut at the Metropolitan at 16, but instead I fell in love. When I married Charles Loughrey I gave up the idea of grand opera, but sang in musicals, cafes and vaudeville. My husband didn't object to that, just so long as I didn't go out of town on tour. I remember singing from a balcony one night at Pabst's, which used to be a fashionable restaurant at 125th Street and Broadway, and I looked down and saw Caruso and Tetravini eating spaghetti at a table below and beckoning to me. I went down and they complimented me on my high E—not many singers can reach it, you know."

Sang For McKinley
"I sang for President McKinley and Adm. Dewey as a child. I remember being lifted on a chair by Walter Damrosch, so the President could see me as I sang. "Then I was Eva Tanguay's prima donna in a hit musical, 'The Sambo Girl.' I did the singing and she did the dancing. I sang at all the famous old clubs and cafes, and used to be booked for 52 straight weeks of vaudeville. It was a wonderful life. My second husband was an artist."

MURDER TRIAL IS NEAR JURY

LEWISBURG, Pa. (AP)—A Union County jury was scheduled to hear final summations by the defense and prosecution today before deliberating a verdict in the trial of 39-year-old John Bower, of Jersey Shore.

Bower is charged with slaying Ralph W. Koch, a retired Allentown farmer, on his 70th birthday earlier this year. He has denied Fielding Magness, and my third was George Wild, a real estate man. I loved them all.

"Now I have memories—and Broadway. What more could anyone want?"

HEARINGS ON NEW INCREASE BY BLUE CROSS

HARRISBURG (AP)—The state Insurance Department will conduct public hearings starting Tuesday on rate increases ranging up to 42.4 per cent sought by four Blue Cross organizations.

Insurance Commissioner Francis R. Smith scheduled the hearings Thursday.

The higher rates have been proposed by the Associated Hospital Service of Western Pennsylvania, Pittsburgh; Associated Hospital Service of Philadelphia; Associated Hospital Service of Northeastern Pennsylvania, Wilkes-Barre, and Capital Hospital Service, Harrisburg.

The principal new feature in the filings is inclusion for the first time of out-patient services by Capital, Northeastern and Pittsburgh Philadelphia included the service last year.

The department said the increases averages: Philadelphia, 23.3 per cent; Capital, 28.6 per cent; Pittsburgh, 33.3 per cent for its less comprehensive (2190) plan and 42.4 per cent for its standard plan; and Northeastern, 34.7 per cent.

Excluded from the rate increases were the so-called master groups which include hospitalization plans in major industrial companies.

The only Pennsylvania Blue Cross organization not to file was Lehigh Valley of Allentown, which received a rate increase recently.

Northeastern last filed for an increase six years ago. Pittsburgh received increases for its standard contract two years ago, while other Blue Cross rates were raised last year.

any responsibility for the slaying.

Koch was beaten to death in his home after surprising two intruders.

The defense and prosecution rested their cases Thursday.

In testimony, Bower denied ever telling Anthony R. Aurigemma, of New York, that he killed Koch.

Aurigemma, an employee of the National Board of Fire Underwriters, testified earlier that he entered the Union County Jail as an investigator for three days and talked with Bower. He testified that Bower told him he had killed Koch.

Bowers is accused of entering the Koch home with Larue L. Lovell, also of Jersey Shore. Lovell is scheduled for trial later.

Pike Patrol Cars To Be Well Marked

HARRISBURG (AP)—The words "state police" will be marked on the trunks of 43 Pennsylvania Turnpike patrol vehicles today in a "psychological move to obtain compliance with the law."

Capt. Wilbur M. Smith, commanding officer of the state police Turnpike detail, said only 12 of the 84 patrol cars will remain unmarked.

Smith said the decals are being placed on the rear of the patrol cars as an experiment to determine the effect on drivers overtaking them. He said the identifications should encourage better driving habits on the Turnpike.

PA. BUSINESS INDEX IS UP

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP)—Pennsylvania's general business index shot to an all-time high during April, the Bureau of Business Research at Pennsylvania State University reported today.

The index climbed to a record high of 169, a 6 per cent gain over March, the bureau said. The index is based primarily on bank debits, industrial power sales and factory payrolls.

In its breakdown, the bureau noted that the state's industrial activity index for April was 120, a 3 per cent increase over March. It is based on coal production, factory hours and industrial power sales.

Retail Prices High
Steel production for April reached 2,941,400 net tons, which was double last year's figure.

The survey also showed a drop in unemployment for the period despite an increase in the civilian labor force.

The bureau said an estimated 413,000 persons were out of work in mid-April—representing 8.9 per cent of the civilian labor force of 4,640,500. However, it noted the percentage still was well above the national average.

The April consumer price index, reported the bureau equaled a record high of 123.8 reached last November. Retail food costs dropped to their lowest point since December of 1957 at 119.8.

YOUTH DROWNS

HERSHEY, Pa. (AP)—Earl C. Radle Jr., 16, of East Pennsboro Township, drowned Thursday night while swimming in nearby Brownstone Quarry.

Hershey Fire Chief Eugene Gray said the boy, swimming with several companions, crossed the quarry once but went under on the return trip. His companions pulled him out and tried to revive him with artificial respiration.

The Century plant, a relative of the desert yucca, takes from 25 to 100 years to bloom. As soon as blossoms appear, it dies.

The old-fashioned method of sprinkling hot rolls with water before reheating in a moderate oven is a good one; use it if the bread is dry, but sprinkle sparingly.

6 NAVY GRADS WILL SWITCH TO ARMY JOBS

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP)—An admiral's son who doesn't like the water and five other midshipmen are making naval history—by becoming officers in the U.S. Army. They'll make the switch immediately after graduation from the academy next week.

It's by choice. And although they give a variety of reason, it boils down to the fact that they prefer Army service to the Navy.

Marshall H. Woodridge of Bethesda, Md., 24-year-old son of Admiral E. Tyler Woodridge, has never made any bones about his preference for the infantry. His parents long ago accepted the fact. The boy just doesn't like the water.

Others Make Switch
The switch-over is natural for Paul F. Keefe of Baltimore and Arthur Emerson of Coke, Va. Their fathers were Army colonels. The other three graduating midshipmen making the switch are John M. Rourke of Springfield, Ill.; Michael Joseph Cronin of Red Bank, N.J., and James W. Fritz of Humboldt, S.D.

The way was opened just this year for graduates of the service academies to volunteer for another

Boy Is Crushed To Death By Truck

HARRISBURG (AP)—A two-year-old boy who apparently crawled under a parked garbage truck was crushed to death in nearby Hampden Township Thursday when the driver drove away without noticing him.

The youngster was Michael J. Alfara of Harrisburg. The accident happened near the child's home.

The police said the driver of the truck was Roy M. Dutrey, 58, of Enola.

ENGINEER FIRED

HARRISBURG (AP)—The State Highways Department today dismissed district permit engineer Andrew Forsythe, Abington, Montgomery County.

The department listed its reason for the dismissal as Forsythe's issuance of permits "contrary to accepted department procedure." Forsythe, who has been under suspension for several weeks, has been permit engineer of Dist. 6 since 1951.

The dismissal followed a hearing in Haverford May 8 after a department investigation.

er service. Navy previously had been sending a portion of its class to the Air Force and Marines under quota systems—but never to the Army although some of its officers transferred after a period of sea duty.

BANK ROBBER ELIGIBLE FOR PAROLE IN '61

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Bank robber Randall C. Nuss, 35, drew a 10-year prison term Thursday, but will be eligible for parole in two years.

U.S. District Court Judge Thomas J. Clary pronounced the sentence on the Bucks County gasoline station operator whose counsel pointed out he had no police record.

Nuss changed his plea May 19 from innocent to guilty of taking part in the $17,730 holdup of the Lawrence Park Branch of the Girard Trust Corn Exchange Bank in Broomall March 4. He never took his eyes off the floor as the judge spoke.

Danger Of Murder
"Pulling such a job with a gun might turn into murder at any second by these inexperienced robbers," Judge Clary said.

Nuss and his partner in the hold-up, James Francis Jenkins, 37, of Levittown, were caught in Provdence, R.I., four days after the robbery.

Jenkins and two cellmates escaped from Moyamensing Prison here April 30. The others were caught. Jenkins is still at large.
The jurist said of Nuss, "If I were to give this man a pat on the back, no depositor would be safe. This is one of the most serious of federal offenses."

Drinks For Courage
Nuss' lawyer, William L. Goldman, said Nuss was putty in the hands of Jenkins because he worked 16 to 18 hours a day but still couldn't make much of a profit.
"He had had at least a dozen drinks to bolster his courage," Goldman told the court, "and when it came time to do the job he was afraid he might be called 'chicken' if he didn't go through with it."

FBI Agent William M. McClure Jr. testified that Nuss and Jenkins held up the bank about 2 p.m., with Nuss holding the gun and herding employees and customers into a side room while Jenkins grabbed the money.

About $4,000 in cash was recovered along with a car bought with $3,000 of the stolen money.

searching for the .38 caliber pistol used by John Butler, formerly of Giarville, in the slaying of sheriff James R. Lauer, 52, of Shamokin. It was the sheriff's own gun.
Some 50 area Explorer Scouts were called out to aid police in searching for the weapon which Butler said he threw away in swampy land near McCandless Twp.
Butler surrendered to police early Thursday after taking refuge in a wooded area, climbing
